extra octave key Archive Sax on the Web Forum

If your fingering chart includes fingerings for F#3 and possibly even G3, you can ignore them, because you won't have those keys. Depending on your horn, you might not even have a palm key for F3, in which case you could ignore that one, too. And you might not even have the side key for high E, so there goes another.

The Original Saxophone SaxPics com

Adolphe Sax, born Antoine-Joseph, produced the first saxophone in about 1843: a C bass in the shape of an ophicleide. These "prototype" saxophones made in this curved style are vanishingly rare (there may be only four left, worldwide). The soprano, alto and tenor were traditionally shaped and were produced slightly later.
